The 2021 Infusion Therapy Standards of Practice: An Introduction

The Infusion Nurses Society (INS) understands the significance that the Infusion Therapy Standards of Practice (the Standards) hold in relation to the delivery of safe patient care. The recent release of the 2021 Infusion Therapy Standards of Practice incorporates the global evidence base and clinical expertise to provide a guide to safe practices.

Join us as we identify the updates in the 2021 Infusion Therapy Standards of Practice via recording by Lisa Gorski. Tricia Kleidon, Nurse Practitioner in Paediatric Vascular Access, Research Fellow (AVATAR group), and member of the Standards of Practice Committee for INS, will join Lisa for a live Q&A session.
